Sure. We plan to produce documents rather than make them available for review, but happy to discuss. I hope to also send you an ESI Protocol in the next day or two which addresses issues such as Bates numbering, production format, etc. It might make sense to have our call after you review that.

Hi Leita and Kevin,

Now that the protective order has been signed, would you each be in a position to discuss arrangements for us to review documents that have been described as available for review in the respective discovery responses?

Thank you,
April
